- e) Bank will convey change in interest rate on loan availed due to change in EBLR/ MCLR, etc.

(xv) CREDIT CARDS

A Credit Card is a payment card issued to users as a system for making payments. It allows the card holder to pay for goods and services based on the card holder's promise to pay for them. The Bank grants a line of credit to the card holder which the card holder can use to pay for goods and services or to withdraw cash, if a cash line is provided.

The Card holder is subsequently billed by the Bank for repayment of the credit extended either in full by the end of a specified period or can be settled in part, with the balance taken as extended credit as per the card issue terms. Interest is charged based on the terms as mentioned in the Cardholder's agreement and / or the Most Important Terms and Conditions. The Card holder may at times be required to pay an annual fee, which is communicated at the time of the card application.

Applicants can choose from a variety of IndusInd Credit Cards that cater to their lifestyle demands. Each card is loaded with its unique features and rewarding benefits, which are communicated at the time of application and subsequently sent with the Card Plastic in the Welcome Kit. It is the Bank's constant endeavour to enhance customer experience with unmatched product features, distinctive offers and superior customer service.

1. When a customer applies for a Credit Card the Bank will satisfy itself about the identity and bona fides of the applicant, which would include verification of address of the applicant, with an objective of protecting the Bank and the prospective applicants against probable fraud and misuse of any kind.
2. The Bank is required to obtain the Permanent Account Number (PAN) or alternatively obtain declaration through Form No. 60 from the individual applying for the Credit Card, (under Rule 114B(I) read with section 139A(5)(c) of the Income Tax Act 1961).
3. The Bank will provide prospective customers (applicants) details of the documents required for identification and credit verification while applying for the Credit Card. The original of all documents will need to be sighted. Documents normally accepted are current Gas / telephone / electricity bill or either of voter's identity card / driving licence / passport.
4. The detailed Schedule of Charges is displayed on the Bank's website and is also clearly documented in every statement that the customer shall receive. The method of calculation of interest rate and Late Fee are illustrated with simple examples to ensure that the card holder can easily understand and comprehend the charges applicable.
5. The Bank shall make available the 'Most Important Terms and Conditions' (MITCs) to the applicant and a copy of the MITC shall also be made available with the credit card welcome kit. For further convenience of customers, the MITC shall also be available on the Bank's website

6. The Bank will send the Card holder a monthly statement, depicting payments and transactions for the month. Statements are only sent provided the Card has been active during the said period. Customers should ensure that at least the Minimum Amount Due is paid by the Payment Due Date to keep the card account current and to avoid levy of charges and to maintain a good credit record and to build a good credit history
7. Payments received against the Card outstanding will be adjusted against all EMIs, taxes, fees, other charges, interest charges, cash advances and purchases, in that order.
8. Customers should contact the Bank immediately at our 24-Hour helpline number, if a Card is lost, stolen, misplaced, or if the customer suspects that the details such as PIN or any sensitive information has been compromised.
9. The Bank is a member of Credit Information Companies registered with Reserve Bank of India and shares Credit Information including but not limited to current balance, payment history, etc., along with demographic details with these Credit Information Companies, as mandated by the Credit Information Companies (Regulation) Act, 2005
10. In case of disputes pertaining to transactions levied on card account, the cardholder should inform the Bank in writing within 15 days of receipt of the Statement clearly highlighting reasons for dispute and providing supporting documents to justify dispute in order for dispute resolutions to be progressed and clarifications sought from the member bank.

On receipt of such information, the Bank may reverse the charge on a temporary basis and/or levy a retrieval fee which will be reversed in case dispute established to be not pertaining to customer. If, on completion of subsequent investigations, the liability of such charges is ascertained to be to the account, the charge will be reinstated to the card account and interim credit if provided earlier would be reversed.

The complainant would have upto 60 days for informing the Bank of any other complaints/grievances.

For the comprehensive Terms and Conditions, relevant Credit Card guidelines, please visit the Bank's website www.indusind.com.

Credit Schemes:

Agriculture Credit

Bank is extending loans at various ticket sizes for agri based and agri allied activities to Proprietorships, Partnerships and Private and closely held limited Companies, as per their eligibility. Due diligence is done on the documents submitted (KYC, Income documents, CB reports, etc.) and accordingly the loan application is processed. In case of a sanctioned loan a sanction letter containing the Terms of sanction is given to the customer. In case the loan is rejected, the customer is informed of the same.

For timely credit support to the farmers, short-term and long-term credit is extended through Kisan Credit Card Scheme. These loans are extended through single window system for all credit requirements of farmers for agricultural and agri-allied activities in a cost-effective manner. A RuPay enabled Kisan Card is also issued to customers for withdrawing funds directly from their CC/OD account through any IndusInd Bank or other Bank's ATM or for purchasing farm inputs from merchant outlets.

All loans are extended post completion of due diligence with respect to KYC, Credit Bureau Check, verification of agricultural activity and land records. Key Fact Statement containing various Terms and Conditions are shared during application stage as well as Sanction stage to ensure complete transparency. Welcome letter containing important terms and conditions, pricing, fees charged, and repayment details are also shared post booking of the loan in vernacular language along with RuPay Card and Cheque book facility for ease of operations in the account.

Retail Loan Schemes

The customers can approach any of our branches for availing retail loan products. A loan application is received from the customer after duly explaining the process of sanction and the terms and conditions governing the loan.

The schedule of charges is made available to the customer in every case and is also available at all branches. On receipt of the loan application along with the supporting documents, an acknowledgement is issued to the customer.

The loan application is processed based on the evaluation parameters and credit norms after duly inspecting the documents submitted.

If the loan does not meet with our norms, the loan rejections reasons are duly informed to the borrowers. If the loan is approved, formal sanction letter is issued detailing the terms and conditions of sanction.
