Unclaimed Deposit Policy

PREAMBLE

Reserve Bank of India, vide their circular DBOD No.Leg.BC.34/09.07.005/2008-09 dated August 22, 2008 had issued detailed instructions to banks on dealing with unclaimed deposits / inoperative accounts. Further, vide its circular DBOD. No. Leg.BC.81/09.07.005/2011-12 dated February 7, 2012, banks were advised to display the list of unclaimed deposits / inoperative accounts which were inactive / inoperative for ten years or more on their respective websites. With a view to further strengthening the regulatory framework for inoperative accounts and unclaimed deposits, banks have been advised to put in place a Board approved policy on classification of unclaimed deposits; grievance redressal mechanism for quick resolution of complaints; record keeping and periodic review of such accounts. The first periodic review of unclaimed deposits / inoperative accounts should be put up to their respective bank Boards by September 30, 2012. The Unclaimed Deposit Policy was formulated and reviewed by BOD in the meeting held on October 2012.

Further, RBI vide its circular no. DBOD.No.DEAF Cell.BC.114/30. 01.002/2013 dated May 27, 2014 issued directions regarding creation of “The Depositor Education and Awareness Fund Scheme, 2014”

All unclaimed deposits are transferred to Depositor Education and Awareness Fund of RBI w.e.f from June 2014.

OBJECTIVE OF THE POLICY

- Classification of unclaimed deposits
- Grievance redressal mechanism for quick resolution of complaints
- Record keeping

CLASSIFICATION

Inoperative / dormant accounts

The Bank will review on a monthly basis all Savings Bank and Current accounts to identify accounts where there have been no operations for more that one year. Such accounts will be marked as “Inoperative”. Bank will send letter to such account holders to activate their account or provide the reason for not operating the account.

Bank will review on a monthly basis all accounts marked as “Inoperative” and identify accounts wherein there are no operations for more than 21 months. A second letter will be sent to all such accounts, conveying that their account would be flagged as dormant if not operated within next 3 months, specifying the implications relating to “Dormant” flagging.

Bank will review on a monthly basis all accounts and identify accounts where there have been no operations for more than 24 months and flag them as “Dormant Account”.

Follow-up with customers for activation:

Branches would enquire to find out the whereabouts of customers where response is not received. Branches would endeavor to contact the account holder through his contact details available as per records, in case the customer is not contactable, the branch will try to ascertain the whereabouts of the customer through the introducer / sourcing executive / Employer. In case it is known that the account holder is deceased, the branch would contact the nominee / legal heirs and extend all help for settlement of claim. For NRI Accounts, the branch will contact the customer through email and obtain confirmation of details of account.

ACTIVATION OF INOPERATIVE / DORMANT ACCOUNTS

The dormancy status will be modified to active status on the specific request of the account holder. Operations in dormant account would be allowed after due diligence.

There will not be any charge for activation of inoperative account. Interest on Savings Bank accounts will be credited on regular basis whether the account is operative or not.

Unclaimed Deposits

Accounts that have not been operated and Demand Drafts / Pay orders which are unpaid for over 10 years will be classified as unclaimed deposits.

The Bank will transfer the balances of all such unclaimed accounts to the Depositor Education Awareness Fund (DEAF) of RBI on the last working day of the subsequent month along with the interest accrued thereon on the interest bearing accounts.

We would display the list of unclaimed deposits / inoperative accounts which are inactive / inoperative for 10 years on our website and update the same monthly.

The list would contain the names and address of the account holder(s) in respect of unclaimed deposits / inoperative accounts. In case such accounts are not in the name of individuals, the names of individuals authorized to operate the accounts would also be indicated. The list so published would provide a "Find" option to enable the public to search the list of accounts by name of the account holder. Customers will be advised to approach the nearest branch for payment of unclaimed deposits and submit the following documents for making the account live:

- Photo Identification proof
 - Address Proof
 - Details of accounts held
 - Annexure A (For Interest bearing and Non-Interest bearing accounts)
 - Annexure B (For Demand Draft / Pay Order)
- All unclaimed deposits will require to comply with Re-KYC norms as per RBI guidelines
 - If a Fixed Deposit Receipt matures and proceeds are unpaid, the amount left unclaimed with the bank will attract savings bank rate of interest

For support on branch locations, Customers can call the contact centre.

The final response to customer for such cases will be sent by the Bank only after examination by CCSO and the fact that the response has CCSO concurrence will be mentioned in the response to customer.

If the complaint is not resolved within 30 days from the lodgement of the complaint or if the complainant is not satisfied with the response, he/she can approach the office of the Banking Ombudsman, appointed by Reserve Bank of India.

We have displayed on our website and in all our branches a Notice explaining that we are covered under the Banking Ombudsman Scheme 2006 of the Reserve Bank of India. The contact details of Regional Manager, Bank's Nodal Officer and Banking Ombudsman are prominently displayed on the notice board at branch. A copy of the Scheme is available at the Branches and availability of the Scheme is also displayed at the Branch Notice Board. The Scheme is also displayed on Bank's website. If a complainant requires any support to report to the Banking Ombudsman, he / she may contact the Branch Head for details.

RECORD KEEPING

All unclaimed deposits are open accounts and available in our system too. The account opening forms and KYC are held with the bank at various locations i.e. branches and / or centralized location of the bank / vendors. Once the accounts are claimed and closed, the records will be held for 10 years as per Bank's Record Retention Policy.

Amounts lying in inoperative accounts ledger will be subjected to audit by the internal auditors / statutory auditors of the bank.
